

Teacher at Brand New Thanksgiving Point Location, Museum Campus

Dancing Moose Montessori School is growing! Dancing Moose is an 18-month through 2nd grade program, and looking for teachers to join their team. Dancing Moose and members of their team have been recognized as Best of State for several years for a variety of contributions in early childhood education. The school is housed in a beautiful, newly constructed learning center designed around children's interests.

Dancing Moose is looking for Lead and Assistant Teachers to lay a strong foundation for the opening of their new school. There will be current Dancing Moose Teachers transferring from their other locations which will provide ample training opportunities for new hires.

Teachers work with children daily giving lessons using Montessori Philosophy as their foundation while also bringing in current researched best practices to create an ideal, engaging learning environment for children. Dancing Moose has an in-house MACTE accredited Teacher Education Program where teachers can receive a Montessori teaching credential in the ages 0-3 years, 3-6 years and 6-9 years.
